

The ABF Claxton Shield returns to Canberra Narrabundah Baseball Park Friday 12 December, 7.00pm, and Saturday 13 December, 7.00pm

Fans will have the unique opportunity to see and meet some of Australia's best players going head to head in a fierce state versus state rivalry as the New South Wales Patriots take on the might of the west against the Barbagello Perth Heat. These two teams battled it out in the 2008 Claxton Shield Final with the team from the West taking out the title, ensuring the Patriots will be fired up for some pay-back when the 'show' comes to Canberra.

Entry by Gold Coin Donation. Kids entry absolutely free upon presentation of the ticket attached below.

Fans will have the opportunity to see local players Nick Kimpton (WA) and Sam Thornton (NSW) playing in the series. Players will not only be competing for state pride, but also for personal honours, with selection in the Australian national team up for grabs. The National team will take part in the world's most elite international baseball competition, the World Baseball Classic, ensuring this year's Claxton Shield will be one of the most competitive in recent memory.

One lucky local junior player will be selected from a random draw to throw the first pitch of the main game on Saturday night, and there will be plenty of other entertainment prior to, and during the games.
